Dear ██████████

Official Information Act request

On 29 April 2019 you requested under the Official Information Act 1982:

- A transcript of the calls Hannibal made while he was flying to the men and afterwards. Any and all communication, whether it be sat phone, radio etc.

Any material supplied to the Commission in the course of an investigation is confidential. In addition, investigation records are not subject to the Official Information Act (refer to sections 14B and 14R of the Transport Accident Investigation Commission Act 1990).

For the above reasons your request has been refused.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Burfoot
Chief Investigator of Accidents
